MIRACULOUS HELP

The first known miracle worked by Our Lady was at the wedding feast of Cana when she obtained from her Son the conversion of water into wine. So, too, she can obtain a miraculous intercession with her Son for our poor Creation.

Prayer for Protection in Time of Pandemic...

O Mary, you always brighten our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus' pain while remaining steadfast in faith. O loving Mother, you know what we need, and we are confident you will provide for us as at Cana in Galilee. Intercede for us with your Son Jesus, the Divine Physician, for those who have fallen ill, for those who are vulnerable, and for those who have died. Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeking a cure. Help us, O Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows, so as to lead us, through the Cross, to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen. Under your protection we seek refuge, O Holy Mother of God. In our needs, despise not our petitions, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

HERE ARE 5 WAYS TO KEEP SUNDAY HOLY IN COVID 19 TIMES

1. Watch a live-stream of the Mass

The Archbishop, Cardinal Collins, will be live-streaming daily Mass from St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica at 7:30 a.m. Monday through to Sunday.

While digital participation can never replace actual presence at Mass, live-stream Mass <https://www.archtoronto.org> is a great way of keeping our connection with the Mass when it is not possible to be there in person. We can make an offering in our heart to be united spiritually to this offering, which is more spiritually efficacious than any other prayer. We should silence our phones, eliminate (as best we can!) distractions in our home, and try to give all of our attention to what is happening at the Mass so we can fully participate in this remote way.

2. Make a spiritual communion

An ancient practice of the Church for those who cannot be present at Mass is to make a spiritual communion. We have a simple prayer you can pray with longing in your heart to be united to Jesus.

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen. St. Alphonsus Liguori

3. Read the Sunday readings as a family

These can easily be found at usccb.org/bible by clicking on "Today's Readings." Magnificat (a daily prayer book) is also offering free digital resources during this time, including the Sunday readings and a reflection.

Reading Scripture individually or together with others—especially in our families—is an excellent spiritual practice. Catholics "commit to forming your family in the love and power of sacred Scripture by placing it at the centre of your family life. Study and reflect on Scripture, especially on the Sunday readings." Archbishop Vigneron

4. Check in on those around you

Because those who are older are most susceptible to complications from COVID-19, health officials are encouraging them to minimize their time away from home. It is a great act of charity to reach out to these brothers and sisters in our faith communities to check in on them. Do they need groceries or help with something in their homes? Caring for each other — especially those who are most vulnerable during this time — is a demand of the Gospel. It is the enactment of our life as joyful missionary disciples.

5. Pray a family Rosary

Reclaim the Rosary as a way to be united to Mary, the Mother of Jesus and the Mother of the Church. She is the perfect model of a disciple and our great intercessor. If you don't know how to pray this prayer, check out the youtube video from the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal and pray along with them.

RECONCILIATION WITH THE LORD IN THE ABSENCE OF THE SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION

Act of Contrition (traditional)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

Act of Contrition (alternate form)

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Saviour Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Acts of Contrition inspired by the Gospels

Father of mercy, like the prodigal son I return to you and say: "I have sinned against you and am no longer worthy to be called your child."

Christ Jesus, Saviour of the world, I pray with the repentant thief to whom you promised Paradise: "Lord, remember me in your kingdom."

Holy Spirit, fountain of love, I call on you with trust: "Purify my heart, and help me to walk as a child of light."

Lord Jesus, you opened the eyes of the blind, healed the sick, forgave the sinful woman, and after Peter's denial confirmed him in your love. Listen to my prayer: forgive all my sins, renew your love in my heart, help me to live in perfect unity with my fellow Christians that I may proclaim your saving power to all the world.

An Act of Contrition to Our Lord Jesus

Lord Jesus, you chose to be called the friend of sinners. By your saving death and resurrection free me from my sins. May your peace take root in my heart and bring forth a harvest of love, holiness, and truth.

An Act of Contrition inspired by Psalm 51

Lord God, in your goodness have mercy on me: do not look on my sins, but take away all my guilt. Create in me a clean heart and renew within me an upright spirit.

The Jesus Prayer

Lord Jesus, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

THE WISDOM OF POPE, SAINT JOHN XXIII

"Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what it is still possible for you to do"

POPE FRANCIS' Litany of Supplication

WE ADORE YOU, O LORD

True God and true man, truly present in this Holy Sacrament,

We adore you, O Lord.

Our Savior, God-with-us, faithful and rich in mercy,

We adore you, O Lord.

King and Lord of creation and history,

We adore you, O Lord.

Conqueror of sin and death,

We adore you, O Lord.

Friend of humankind, risen and living at the right hand of the Father,

We adore you, O Lord.

WE BELIEVE IN YOU, O LORD

Only begotten Son of the Father, Who descended from Heaven for our salvation,

We believe in you, O Lord.

Heavenly doctor, who inclines over our misery,

We believe in you, O Lord.

Sacrificed Lamb, who offers Himself to save us from evil,

We believe in you, O Lord.

Good Shepherd, who gives his life for the flock he loves,

We believe in you, O Lord.

Living bread and medicine of immortality, who gives us Life eternal,

We believe in you, O Lord.

FREE US, O LORD

From the power of Satan and the seductions of the world,

Free us, O Lord.

From pride and from the presumption that we can do without you,

Free us, O Lord.

From the deceptions of fear and anguish,

Free us, O Lord.

From unbelief and despair,

Free us, O Lord.

From hardness of heart and the incapacity to love,

Free us, O Lord.

SAVE US, O LORD

From all the evils that afflict humanity,

Save us, O Lord.

From hunger, famine and egoism,
Save us, O Lord.

From disease, epidemics and fear of our brothers and sisters,

Save us, O Lord.

From devastating folly, from merciless interests and from violence,

Save us, O Lord.

From deception, misinformation and manipulation of consciences,

Save us, O Lord.

CONSOLE US, O LORD

Look upon your Church, which is crossing the desert,

Console us, O Lord.

Look upon humanity, terrified by fear and anguish,

Console us, O Lord.

Look upon the sick and dying, oppressed by loneliness,

Console us, O Lord.

Look upon doctors and health care workers, overwhelmed by fatigue,

Console us, O Lord.

Look upon politicians and administrators, who bear the weight of decisions,

Console us, O Lord.

GIVE US YOUR SPIRIT, O LORD

In the hour of trial and confusion,

Give us your Spirit, O Lord.

In temptation and in weakness,

Give us your Spirit, O Lord.

In the battle against evil and sin,

Give us your Spirit, O Lord.

In the search for true good and true joy,

Give us your Spirit, O Lord.

In the decision to remain in You and in Your friendship,

Give us your Spirit, O Lord.

OPEN US TO HOPE, O LORD

If sin oppresses us,

Open us to hope, O Lord.

If hate closes our hearts,

Open us to hope, O Lord.

If suffering visits us,

Open us to hope, O Lord.

If indifference distresses us,

Open us to hope, O Lord.

If death annihilates us,

Open us to hope, O Lord.

CORONA VIRUS PRAYER

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love. Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care. Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbours from helping one another. Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love. Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow. Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace. Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace. Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers, medical professionals, and support workers who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

"My God, My God Why Have You Forsaken Me"

Jesus

This Sunday's Readings: Gospel at the Procession with Palms: Matthew 21:1-11—Jesus enters Jerusalem as the crowd waves palm branches and shouts, "Hosanna!"; First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7: The Lord's Servant will stand firm, even when persecuted; Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 22:8-9,17-20,23-24—A cry for help to the Lord in the face of evildoers; Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11—Christ was obedient even to death, and God has exalted him; Gospel Reading: Matthew 26:14—27:66—Jesus is crucified, and his body is placed in the tomb. (shorter form: Matthew 27:11-54)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we begin Holy Week, the days during which we journey with Jesus on his way of the cross and anticipate his Resurrection on Easter.

The events of Jesus' Passion are proclaimed in their entirety in today's Liturgy of the Word. Those events will be proclaimed again when we celebrate the liturgies of the Triduum—Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Good Friday of the Lord's Passion, and the Easter Vigil. These days are indeed profound and holy.

Today, we read the Passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Matthew. The story of Jesus' Passion and death in Matthew's Gospel focuses particularly on the obedience of Jesus to the will of his Father. As Jesus sends his disciples to prepare for Passover, he indicates that the events to come are the will of the Father. In Jesus' prayer in the garden, he prays three times to the Father to take away the cup of suffering, but each time, Jesus concludes by affirming his obedience to the Father's will. Even Matthew's description of Jesus' death shows Jesus' obedience to the Father.

Another theme of Matthew's Gospel is to show Jesus as the fulfillment of Scripture. Throughout the Passion narrative, Matthew cites and alludes to Scripture to show that the events of Jesus' Passion and death are in accordance with all that was foretold. And if the events were foretold, then God is in control. In addition, Matthew is particularly concerned that the reader does not miss the fact that Jesus is the Suffering Servant of the Old Testament.

Jesus acts in obedience to the Father even in death, so that sins may be forgiven. Matthew makes this clear in the story of the Lord's Supper. As Jesus blesses the chalice, he says: ". . . for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins."

While the Gospels of Matthew and Mark have many parallels in their narrative of the Passion, there are a few details worth noting that are unique to Matthew. Only Matthew indicates the price paid to Judas for betraying Jesus. The story of Judas's death is also found only in Matthew, as is the detail that Pilate's wife received a warning in a dream and that Pilate washed his hands of Jesus' death. Finally, Matthew's Gospel alone mentions the earthquakes and other phenomena that happened after Jesus' death.

Matthew places the responsibility for Jesus' death on the Sanhedrin, the chief priests and elders who were responsible for the Temple. However, the animosity that those Jewish leaders and the Jewish people demonstrate toward Jesus is not to be interpreted in ways that blame the Jewish people for Jesus' death. Throughout Matthew's Gospel, the narrative reflects the tension that probably existed between the early Christian community and their Jewish contemporaries. At the Second Vatican Council, the Council Fathers made clear that all sinners share responsibility for the suffering and death of Jesus and that it is wrong to place blame for Jesus' Passion on the Jewish contemporaries of Jesus or on Jewish people today.

There are many vantage points from which to engage in Jesus' Passion. In the characters of Matthew's Gospel, we find reflections of ourselves and the many ways in which we sometimes respond to Jesus. Sometimes we are like Judas, who betrays Jesus and comes to regret it. We are sometimes like Peter, who denies him, or like the disciples, who fell asleep during Jesus' darkest hour but then act rashly and violently at his arrest. Sometimes we are like Simon, who is pressed into service to help Jesus carry his cross. Sometimes we are like the leaders who fear Jesus or like Pontius Pilate, who washed his hands of the whole affair. Jesus dies so that our sins will be forgiven.

The events of Jesus' Passion, death, and Resurrection are called the Paschal Mystery. No amount of study will exhaust or explain the depth of love that Jesus showed in offering this sacrifice for us. After we have examined and studied the stories we have received about these events, we are left with one final task—to meditate on these events and on the forgiveness that Jesus' obedience won for us.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

What is Ash Wednesday?

This day marks the beginning of Lent. We attend Mass on this day and receive the Ashes on the forehead as a sign of sorrow for sin and as sign of our intention to become more faithful.

What is Lent?

Lent is the penitential season of the Church's year. It is 40 days of preparation to renew our Baptismal vows on Easter Sunday. During this time we seek closer union with the Lord through increasing the disciplines of fasting, prayer, and giving of alms (charitable giving).

Lenten Fast & Abstinence

Catholics are obligated to Fast & Abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday.

The Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

The required fast on Ash Wed and Good Friday involves eating only one full meal on those days. One or two smaller meals may be taken on those days, but may not total one full meal. The required fast does not allow eating anything between meals.

Abstinence on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

Abstinence on these days from meat does not intend the omission of eggs or dairy products.

Age Requirements

"All Catholics who have completed their 14th year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fast up to the beginning of their 60th year.

Fridays of the Year

It is a requirement of our Faith that we abstain from meat on all the Fridays of the year (except on Solemnities) in commemoration of our Saviour's death.

FR SIMON'S TRANSFER DELAYED

Dear Parishioners,

Due to the current situation of uncertainty and anxiety, the Archbishop, Cardinal Collins, wants priests to remain with their communities until things settle down. Therefore, my transfer to the North West Territories will not take place in June as previously planned. The plan at the moment is for the transfer to take place in August. But, as with all things, it will happen in Jesus' time. Meanwhile, let us continue to pray for one another and the world. Peace, Fr Simon

NEW PASTORHopefully in August, 2020

Who the new pastor will be has not yet been decided. Let us pray for him. If we do this together, he will become a blessing to JXXIII.
